

Monopolies have been illegal since 1893. I don't believe what you are proposing is anything else. Doubtless Clear Channel and the few other companies who would own broadcasting in this country think that's a great thing. I have one word for them to consider: boycott.